

Dear Commissioners:

Please carefully consider making exceptions to the "Indiana Do Not Call" List. Before the list, we were bombarded with calls of all sorts and could not eat a peaceful meal. Now, my family can reach us. I believe that the US Mail is a better way for the banks to reach us. That gives us the opportunity to review the information in print. Thank you for your consideration. Respectfully, Nancy Barnett